SETTLEMENT AND RELEASE

This Settlement and Release (“Agreement”) is entered into by and among: (i) Jasmine Burgess; (ii) Guido Dolci (“Dolci”); and (iii) Major Model Management, Inc. (“Major”) (Dolci and Major collectively, “Defendants”) (Defendants together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”), in the settlement of a civil proceeding styled Jasmine Burgess v. Major Model Management, Inc., Case No. 1:20-cv-02816, pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, (JLR) (GWG) (the “Action”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on April 3, 2020, Plaintiff filed a Complaint, and subsequently amended the Complaint (the “Amended Complaint”) to become a putative class and collective action Complaint pursuant to the federal Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) and the New York Labor Law (“NYLL”) alleging that she, and a putatively similarly situated class and collective of models, were “employees,” as defined under the FLSA and NYLL, rather than bona fide independent contractors, and were therefore entitled to, among other things, minimum wages, and that Defendants were in violation of, among other things, frequency of pay, wage deduction and recordkeeping laws. The Amended Complaint also included claims of retaliation under the FLSA and NYLL.

WHEREAS, Defendants assert that since such time as Mr. Dolci became President of Major in 2017, Major has at all times been operated in a professional and orderly fashion, especially its accounting department. Defendants further assert that Mr. Dolci is a family man and takes seriously Major’s obligations to all models represented by Major.

WHEREAS, Plaintiff asserts that Defendants misclassified her and the putative class as independent contractors.

WHEREAS, the Parties initially agreed to attempt to resolve the litigation through mediation through the SDNY court-annexed alternative dispute resolution program, and subsequently through a settlement conference with Magistrate Judge Gabriel W. Gorenstein, both of which efforts were unsuccessful.

WHEREAS, Major has received a bankruptcy discharge of all debts due prior to July 28, 2023, for which proofs of claim were not filed in a bankruptcy proceeding In re Major Model Management, Inc., No. 22-10169 (S.D.N.Y. Bankr.).

WHEREAS, Plaintiff alleges that Major is liable for retaliation violations of the New York Labor Law and Fair Labor Standards Act anti-retaliation provision and violation of NYLL § 193 based on acts or omissions occurring after July 28, 2023.

WHEREAS, in In re Major Model Management, Inc., No. 22-10169 (S.D.N.Y. Bankr.), Chief Bankruptcy Judge Glenn denied Plaintiff’s request to file a class proof of claim in that proceeding.

WHEREAS, the litigation in this action was originally filed on April 3, 2020.

The matter was settled by the parties on mutually agreeable terms.

WHEREAS, based upon their analysis of a number of factors, including the litigation risks, the bankruptcy filing and discharge of Major, previously expended costs and expenses, and additional significant costs and expenses that would be incurred through further litigation, including the time and costs of motions, a trial before a jury, Plaintiff's allegations of claims against Major arising after July 28, 2023, and anticipated appeals, the Parties are satisfied that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate.

WHEREAS, without acknowledging or conceding any liability or damages whatsoever, and without admitting that Plaintiff is an "employee" of Defendants or that Plaintiff is entitled to any pay (including unpaid wages and/or overtime pay), both Plaintiff and Defendants maintain that they have agreed to this settlement on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, to avoid the burden, expense, and uncertainty of litigation and a potential jury trial.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises set forth in this Agreement, as well as the good and valuable consideration provided for herein, the Parties agree to a full and complete settlement of the Action on the following terms and conditions:

1. Upon approval of this Agreement by the Court as required by Cheeks, the Parties' counsel will execute a Stipulation and Proposed Order of Dismissal with Prejudice (the "Stipulation"), attached hereto as Exhibit D, dismissing the Action with prejudice. Upon receipt of the fully-executed Agreement, counsel for Plaintiff shall file the fully-executed Agreement with the Court, and upon receipt of the fully-executed Stipulation, shall file the fully-executed Stipulation following, and subject to, the approval of Plaintiff's unopposed motion for approval of this Agreement.

2. It is understood and agreed that this Agreement, and the settlement it represents is intended solely for the purpose stated herein, and Defendants maintain that they have entered into it for the purpose of avoiding further expenses and costs of litigation and trial. The Parties agree and affirm that there has not been a finding of Defendants' liability under the FLSA or NYLL in this proceeding. This Agreement and the settlement it represents may not be cited as and does not constitute and should not be construed to be an admission by Defendants of any violation of any federal, state or local law, or of any duty whatsoever (other than duties provided for in this Agreement), whether based in statute, common law, or otherwise, and Defendants expressly deny that any such purported violation has occurred as to Plaintiff or any other member of a class or collective, or model.

3. In consideration of the representations, warranties, covenants and releases contained herein, Defendants, including any successors, assigns, and/or subsidiary companies, for a period of ten years from the date this Agreement is approved by the Court, and beginning sixty days (unless otherwise specified below) after the approval of this Settlement Agreement by the Court, shall:

a. Provide to all MM Models (as defined below) who currently are signed to agreements concerning or relating to modeling with Major (or had an agreement concerning or relating to modeling renewed) and/or who sign agreements concerning or relating to modeling with Major, at any point within the next ten years from the date this Agreement is approved by the Court (collectively "MM Models"), access to a smartphone application, which application will provide, within three business days of the date of payment receipt by Major, information on any and all payments concerning and/or relating to the MM Models' work, including, the client name, invoice number, invoiced amount (not including Major's agency and/or service fee), the receipt of payment by Major, and the payment amount received by Major,

For purposes of this Agreement, the date of payment receipt by Defendants is the date the funds are reflected as received in Major's bank statement. The application shall be provided by a third party and models shall pay the subscription fee to such third-party, which is currently $1.99 per month. Plaintiff has approved the PortfolioPad Premium application for this purpose. In the event of an increase by more than an additional $2 per month in any calendar year thereafter, Major will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a replacement smartphone application.

b. Electronically notify, free of any direct or indirect charge or cost to the MM Models (i.e., whether charged by Defendants or any app or service provider) above any annual website fee amount charged to all MM Models, MM Models' scheduling information concerning all bookings, castings, options, go-sees, or similar scheduling, concerning any modeling work assignments, and/or engagements, promptly after the scheduling and finalization of such, bookings, castings, options, and/or go-sees.

c. Provide payment to MM Models for their modeling work, including, but not limited to, for their bookings and usages, without any requirement or need for them to request payment from Defendants, within thirty (30) calendar days of Defendants' receipt of payment concerning or relating to their modeling work (unless the model opts out of such automatic payment pursuant to the procedure described herein or does not submit their payment information as detailed below). For purposes of this Agreement, the date of payment receipt by Defendants is the date the funds are reflected as received in Major's bank statement.

d. Within thirty (30) calendar days of the approval of this Agreement by the Court, Defendants will send all MM Models an automatic payment designation form, to provide ACH payment designation for designating the bank account to which their payments from Defendants will be sent, and opt-out form attached hereto as Exhibit B.

e. Include within all new modeling contracts with MM Models, an ACH payment designation for designating the bank account to which their payments from Defendants will be sent, and opt-out form, attached hereto as Exhibit B.

f. Require any changes to the account payment designation forms in Exhibit B to be memorialized in a change of payment form (attached hereto as Exhibit C). Any MM Model who opts out of the automatic payment provision of Paragraph 3(c) may opt back in at any time by providing new banking information through the change of payment form (attached hereto as Exhibit C).

4. Defendants shall notify by email, using all available last known email information (including but not limited to all email contact information utilized to provide notice in In re Major Model Management, Inc., No. 22-10169 (S.D.N.Y. Bankr.)), all MM Models of Major's adoption of the policies contained in Paragraphs 3(a)-(c), within fourteen calendar days of the approval of this Agreement by the Court.

5. In consideration of the provisions described above and for other good and valuable consideration, Plaintiff hereby releases and forever discharges Defendants, as well as Defendants' shareholders, employees, officers, directors, as well as Defendants' agents (with respect to any acts or omissions concerning or relating to Defendants), from all claims which Plaintiff ever had, now has, or which may arise in the future, regarding any matter arising on or before the date of Plaintiff's execution of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, all such claims (whether known or unknown) for injunctive or declaratory relief, the nonpayment or inaccurate payment of
